CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1941, we attained sufficient knowledge to enter high school as Freshmen. For some reason, the upper and lower classes never seemed to appreciate us. Of course, we all realized that we were the laughing stock of the school, but that seemed to be the least of our worries. With this year being our last, we have been striving for the past four years for something by which Pemberville can remember the class of '45. We received our wish because the boys of the Senior class, with the help of a couple of Sophomore and Junior boys, took the Wood County Championship in Basketball, of which we are very proud.

We began our Freshman year with 31 members. During the year we were sorry to have Frances Stockton and Bernard Kern leave us. We elected the following officers:

President	Ruth Hebler
Vice President	Dick Rahe
Secretary	Luther Henline
Treasurer	Frances Stockton
Annual Reporter ..	Ann Chamberlain

After Frances Stockton left us, we elected Victor Kohring to fill the vacancy of Treasurer.

We had a weiner roast in Dick Rahe's woods, where we played all kinds of games.

Mr. Jackson, our sponsor, prepared a Hallowe'en Party for us in his home. He gave a prize for the best dressed, of which Mary Jane Witker was the winner. We also played many games.

In December we had a dance in Joann Sander's barn. Later in the evening we went into the house for lunch.

In February we had a sleigh ride party. Before we got away from the school, we tipped over.

We enjoyed all the parties we had during our Freshman Year.

September soon flew around again with 28 members entering their second year in high school. Our class officers were:

President	Ann Chamberlain
Vice President	Rita Knight
Secretary	Dale Bruning

Treasurer	Lavonne Peoples
Annual Reporter	Shirley Schwan

We were sorry to have Donald Peters, Curt Wentland, and John Hiser leave us. We heartily welcomed Kathryn Dierksheide and Bruce Ehmke into our midst.

Again we found Mr. Jackson as our class sponsor.

We held a weiner roast at Victor Kohring's, where we played many games during the evening.

This year we were proud to have Melvyn Beck, Luther Henline, and Victor Kohring on the Varsity Team in Basketball. Four other boys were on the second team. Several were on the Baseball team, which made us feel very proud.

At the beginning of our Junior Year, Mrs. Collier assumed the responsibility of sponsoring our jolly class. We had 27 members. The following were the officers for the Junior Year:

President	Luther Henline
Vice President	Lavonne Peoples
Secretary	Victor Kohring
Treasurer	Ruth Hebler
Annual Reporter	Melvin Beck

Our class colors were red and white.

We were very sorry to lose Ernest Sabo, Richard Tong, and Arthur Wegman. We greeted Eugene Thomas from Genoa into our midst.

The first great event of the year was the receiving of our class rings.

We increased our treasury by sponsoring a supper for the businessmen and farmers of this community.

The second great event was the Junior Play entitled, "Tell It to the Marines," under the direction of Mrs. Grace White.

In May came perhaps the biggest and greatest event of the year, our Junior-Senior Reception. It was held in the high school auditorium, which was decorated with a May Pole and spring colored streamers. We received many compliments on the decorations. There was also plenty of good food.

The year which we have looked forward to, has come at last. We are Seniors, twenty-three in number. This year we are happy to have as our sponsor, Miss Geraldine Curl.

The first great event of the year was the photographing of our beautiful and handsome faces at the Dickens' Studio in Fostoria, October 20. Our officers for the year are as follows:

President	Edwin Hapgood
Vice President	Dale Bruning
Secretary	Shirley Schwan
Treasurer	Luther Henline
Annual Reporter	Lois Thone

We were very sorry to lose Rita Knight, Warren Brolhost, and Doris Jividen. We were glad to welcome Coleen Pollard into our midst.

We held a chicken supper November 16 in the auditorium. We planned a program and also raffled off a turkey and a duck.

December 23 we had a Christmas Party at the school house. We played games for about two hours and then all opened our presents. After that we served a very nice lunch.

We chose our class colors, motto, caps, gowns, invitations and name cards in January.

We had a party for the Basketball Team at Wolfe's. It was sponsored by the Senior girls and the rest of the boys who weren't on the team. We had little basketballs for their name cards, and also had pennants hung on the walls. A very nice lunch was served and everyone enjoyed the party.

The Baccalaureate Service was held on May 13, under the direction of Rev. T. G. Buntz of the Lutheran Church.

The Commencement Service was held May 16.

We have come to the end of our four years together. We shared many hours of work and play. The teachers have put up with all our pranks and ministered to our minds for four long years. We are sorry to leave fellow students in other classes, and wish them all many happy hours to come. As we say farewell, we want them to know we really appreciate all the hours they spent with us. After graduation some will go one way, and some another, but our memories of the Pemberville High School days can never be erased.

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1945

Time: 1955

Place: Pacific Ocean

The large, well-known ocean liner "Pemberetta" is enroute to Hawaii. On board we find four members of the Class of 1945. They are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kohring and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bruning, who have decided to vacation at Hawaii. As we listen in, we are just in time to hear them talk about their classmates.

Ruth: This surely has been a lovely trip. So far, I have enjoyed every minute of it.

Alethea: I truthfully can say the same. It certainly was swell we could all take this trip together.

Ruth: I only wish all of our good old classmates could be with us.

Dale: That surely would be nice, but that's wishing a little too much.

Alethea: Yes, I'm afraid it is, 'cause most of them are either tied down with a family or work.

Ruth: I guess that's right. We were certainly lucky to have our parents keep our children.

Alethea: I guess so. I wonder if Junior and Carolyn will get homesick for us?

Ruth: I'm just afraid our twins will.

Alethea: I imagine our two youngsters will, too.

Ruth: I bet the twins really keep mother busy. They do me. I don't see how Shirley gets anything done with her four children.

Alethea: I don't either. They really are livewires, too. It surely is a good start for a football team.

Dale: I don't even know where some of our classmates are or what they are doing.

Victor: I don't know either. Our class really scattered soon after graduation.

Ruth: It surely did. Since we are just settled here with nothing much to do, let's just count them up and see where they are and what they are doing.

Alethea: That's a good idea! We've already mentioned Shirley, and since Melvin is the head of that family, we won't have to say any more about him.

Ruth: I guess, we all know that Ann is editor of Readers Digest.

Dale: Another one who is progressing is Luther, who is treasurer of National Bank of Chicago.

Victor: Eugene is doing all right for himself, too, as coach at Notre Dame.

Ruth: I guess so. They've had a victorious football team ever since he started to coach there.

Alethea: I received a letter from Shirley a couple of weeks ago, and she said that Mary Jane had told her that she has accepted a position as Commercial Instructor at Columbia University.

Victor: That sounds all right, too. We must not forget Eddy and his orchestra. He and his Hep Cats are now playing at Hotel Astor in New York City.

Dale: He really has a good orchestra, too. They broadcasted direct from the ballroom the other night.

Ruth: Talking about ballrooms reminds me—Douglas is a dance instructor now. From what I hear he's quite good.

Alethea: There seems to be quite a few in New York City. Besides all the ones we have mentioned, there is also Jeanette and Joann who have a "Dress Shoppe" on Fifth Avenue.

Ruth: Coleen is a beautician and has the largest Beauty Shoppe in Chicago. It is strictly for the aristocrats in that vicinity.

Alethea: Kathryn is a cosmetician in Hollywood. She made up Betty Grable in her latest picture.

Dale: Hollywood reminds me—we just about forgot that great comedian Ben Jacky, former Dick Rahe.

Victor: I think he's pretty good. Did you hear him on the radio last Thursday night?

Dale: No, but I heard he was good.

Alethea: I guess Vic thought he was all right. I thought he would split laughing.

Ruth: Besides Kathryn and Dick, Lois is also in California. She is dietician of one of the largest hospitals in San Francisco.

Victor: Then there's also Carsten, who also has a large fruit farm in California.

Dale: Say, that's right, we almost forgot about him. He really is making a name for himself.

Alethea: Well, we've mentioned nineteen of our classmates. There's only four more.

Ruth: That's right! There's still Mildred, Ruth W., Lavonne, and Bruce.

Dale: I wonder how Bruce is coming on his ranch?

Victor: All right, I guess. We received a letter from him last week end and he said that he was planning on feeding 800 cattle next year.

Alethea: He seems much more satisfied since he moved back to Kansas. You know he has married someone from there and that they have three children.

Ruth: Yes, I believe you told me that. Mildred is also married. She married some rich dude from Detroit, and they had a beautiful June wedding.

Alethea: Do you know where Ruth W. is and what she is doing?

Ruth: The last time I heard, she was the music instructor at some college at Nyack, New York.

Dale: Quite a few of our classmates went into the teaching profession.

Victor: Well, I guess we have mentioned all our classmates now but Lavonne.

Ruth: Say! That reminds me! It's time for her program. I can't miss that! Do you listen to "The Right to Sorrow"?

Alethea: I certainly do. After I heard that Lavonne plays the role of "Marge," I never miss it. It really is exciting now, isn't it?

Ruth: It surely is! Her other program, "John's Tenth Wife," is also interesting.

Dale: Well, I guess we've mentioned all of our classmates now.

Victor: Yes, I guess we have. That makes 23.

Ruth: On the whole, our class has really done all right for themselves.

Alethea: They certainly have, but say, if we don't turn on our radio immediately we're going to miss our program.

"A LITTLE HONEY"

Jerry Minton, a teen-ager	Alethea Oehmke
Albert Parker, from next door	Richard Rahe
Caroline, "Scoots," Jerry's younger sister	Ruth Hebler
Diana, Jerry's older sister	Shirley Schwan
Delores Megglehammer, the cook	Jeannette Bihn

Eve Tyler, an attractive widow	Ann Chamberlain
Martha Minton, the mother	Lois Thone
Mrs. Simmons, a trained nurse	Joann Sander
Grandma Thornton, Martha's mother	Lavonne Peoples
The Sure-Shot Man, an exterminator	Bruce Ehmke

Synopsis

Diana's mother had taught her that the way to interest a man is to talk about subjects like carburetors and baseball. Diana has tried it with disastrous results so far, for Tom went off to the South Pacific without a word about an engagement. Now Tom is back on leave and coming for his first date. So Diana gets ready to use the same old technique. Then in comes grandma. She shows Diana how to dress the stage—and herself—for a proposal. There's fire in the grate, the lights are low, Diana wears a lovely gown. It looks as if Grandma's technique was going to win if it weren't for the interruption of the bobby-sox brigade led by Diana's younger sister, Jerry, and her heart throb, Albert, the kid next door. Albert barges in to spill the beans and give it away to Tom that the nets have been spread to snare him. Diana could die with chagrin! Not only has her last chance for Tom gone glimmering but the whole household is in an uproar: Grandma is having a set-to with a trained nurse; a southern widow has tossed income tax problems in her father's lap, and evidently hopes to toss herself there next; the cook is on the rampage, determined to "speak her mind" for the duration. So it's in the midst of all this that Diana has to anchor Tom to her heart forever.

CLASS WILL

We, the departing Seniors of Pemberville High School, on this first day of May, 1945, bequeath to the Junior class the vacancies left by us in the detention hall.

To the Sophomores, we bequeath ability to act as one body in everything we did.

To the Freshmen, we leave our fine examples we have set for them to follow.

To certain individuals, we are leaving the following:

Melvin Beck wills his baritone voice to Pemberville's Frank Sinatra, Ted Abke.

Jeanette Bihn wills her G. I. Post Office addresses to Mary Stein.

Dale Bruning wills his mental ability to Charles Biddle.

Mildred Bumpus wills her place with the bailer and tractor to Joan Beeker.

Ann Chamberlain wills her position as editor of the annual to Anita Ernst-hausen who, we hope, will have enough patience to take it.

Kathryn Dierksheide wills her excess weight to the Duffey twins, to divide equally.

Bruce Ehmke wills his ability to roll a car to Ruel Speck.

Edwin Hapgood wills his ability at the pool table to Arthur Smith.

Ruth Hebler wills her shortness to Ted Menter.

Luther Henline wills his basketball ability to Milton Aring.

Victor Kohring wills his "cute" laugh to anyone who can manage it.

Alethea Oehmke wills her ability to daydream in study hall to Andy Gottschalk, who is always sleeping.

Lavonne Peoples wills her pretty hair to Doris Vestal.

Coleen Pollard wills her excess make-up to Mary Huffman.

Dick Rahe wills his "wolfing" technique to Foster Gerwin.

Joann Sander wills her meekness to Peggy Heckman, who could profit by it.

Shirley Schwan wills her extra clothes to anyone who wants them.

Eugene Thomas wills his speed on the track to Gale Williamson.

Lois Thone wills the dimple in her right cheek to Herbie Titkemeier.

Carsten Wegman wills his likeable disposition to Lowell Sander.

Douglas Wegman wills his "dumb" remarks to anyone who will accept them.

Mary Jane Witker wills her good complexion to all those who would like to have it.

Ruth Wormley wills her servicemen to Donna Mae Hiser.

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

Melvin Beck reciting Shakespeare in chapel.

Jeannette Bihn without her Bradner boy friends.

Mildred Bumpus not being willing to cooperate with the class.

Dale Bruning with low grades.

Ann Chamberlain without a pleasant smile.

Kathryn Dierksheide jitterbugging.

Bruce Ehmke not getting into trouble.

Edwin Hapgood without a pool cue.

Ruth Hebler being tall and slender.

Luther Henline singing a solo in chapel.

Victor Kohring playing the piano.

Alethea Oehmke not chasing "Pinky".

Lavonne Peoples with straight hair.

Coleen Pollard without an out-of-town boyfriend.

Richard Rahe not teasing the teachers.

Joann Sander gossiping.

Shirley Schwan having enough time to comb her hair on Monday morning.

Eugene Thomas without his silly laugh.

Lois Thone telling corney jokes.

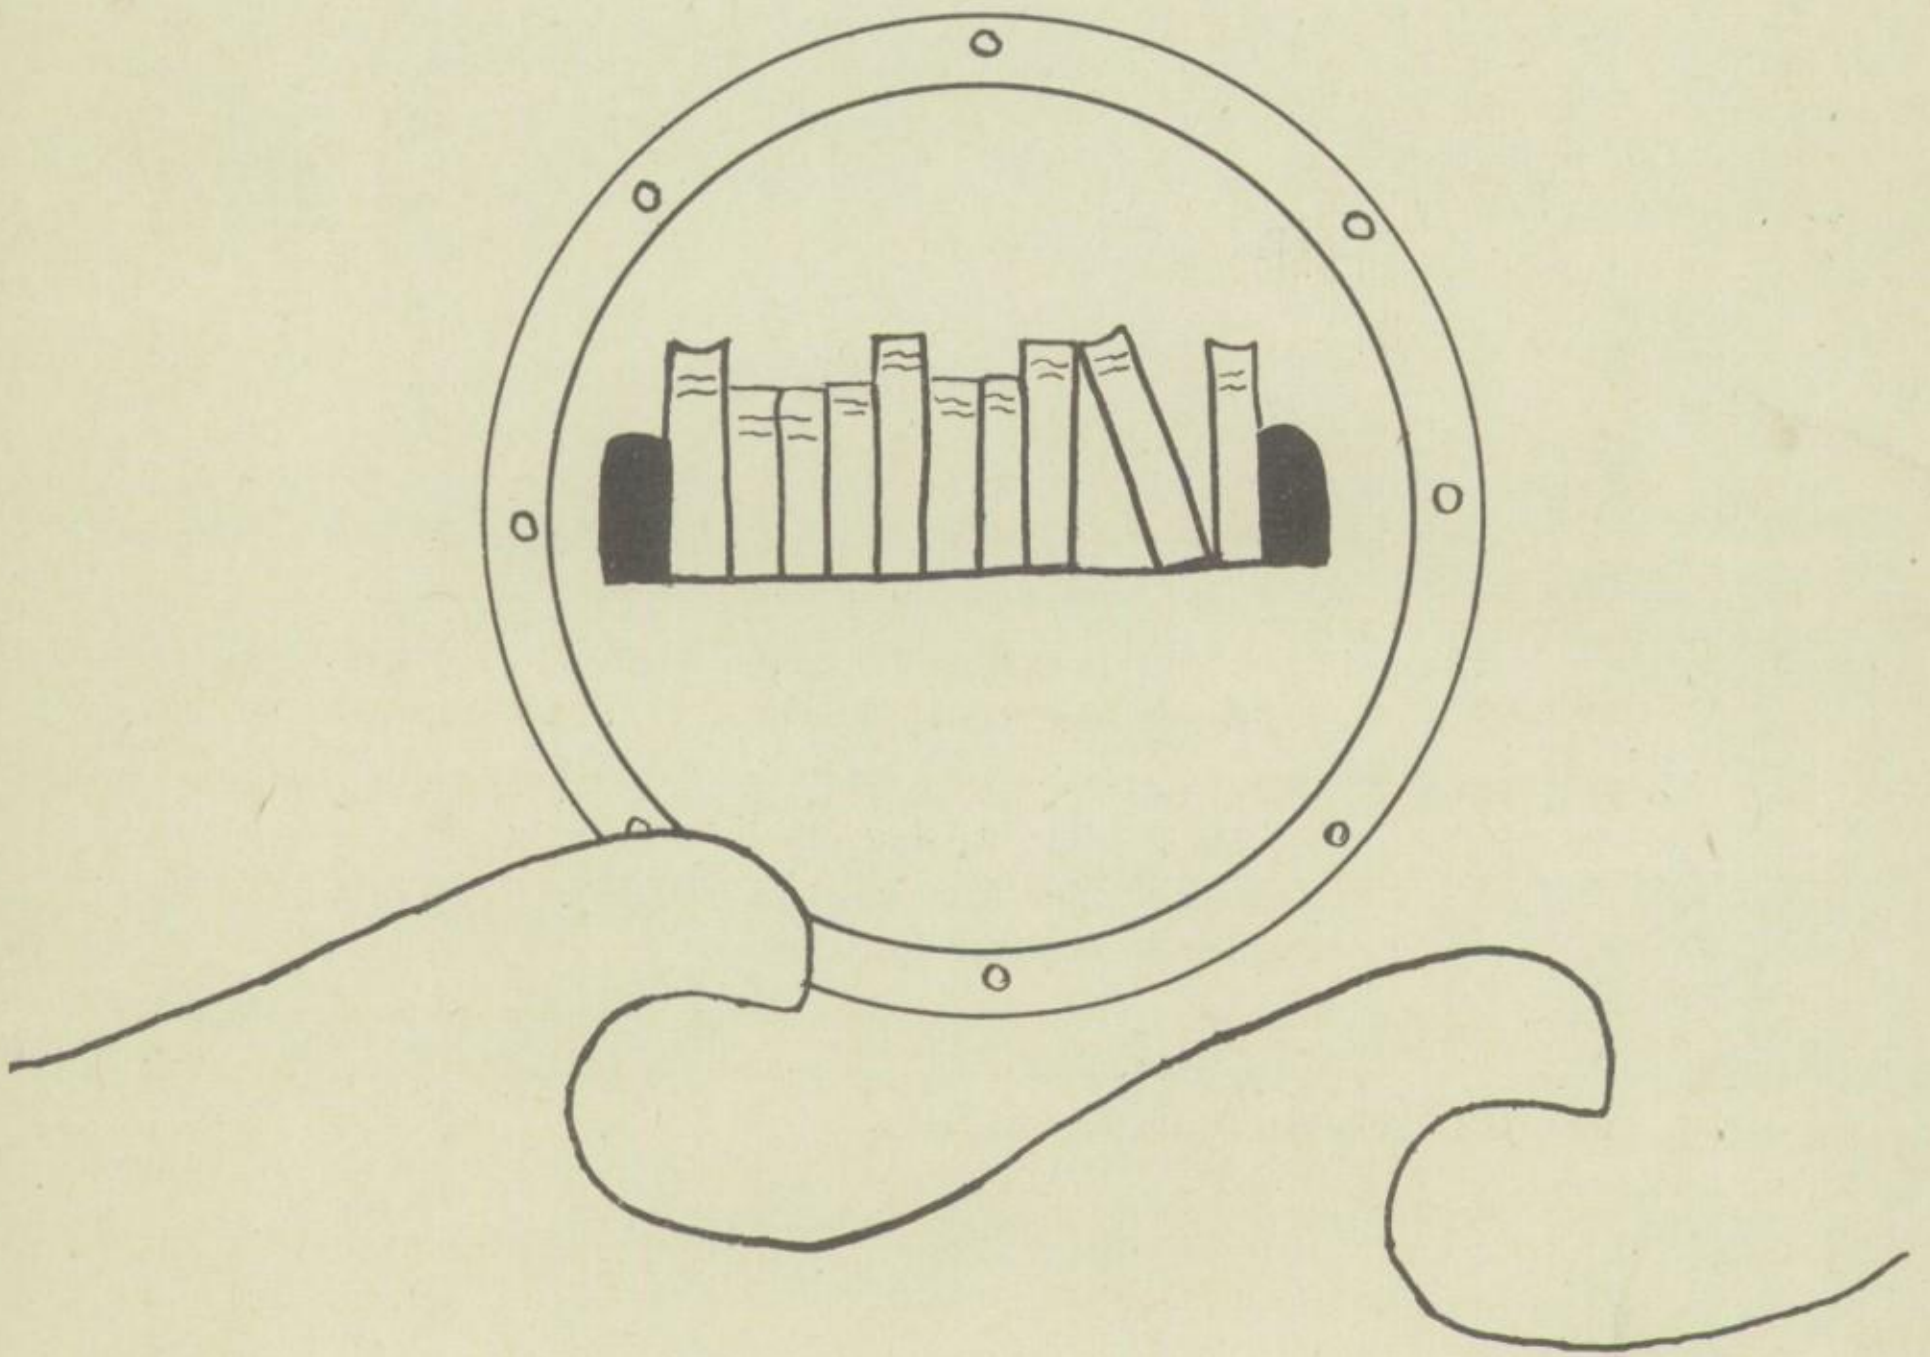

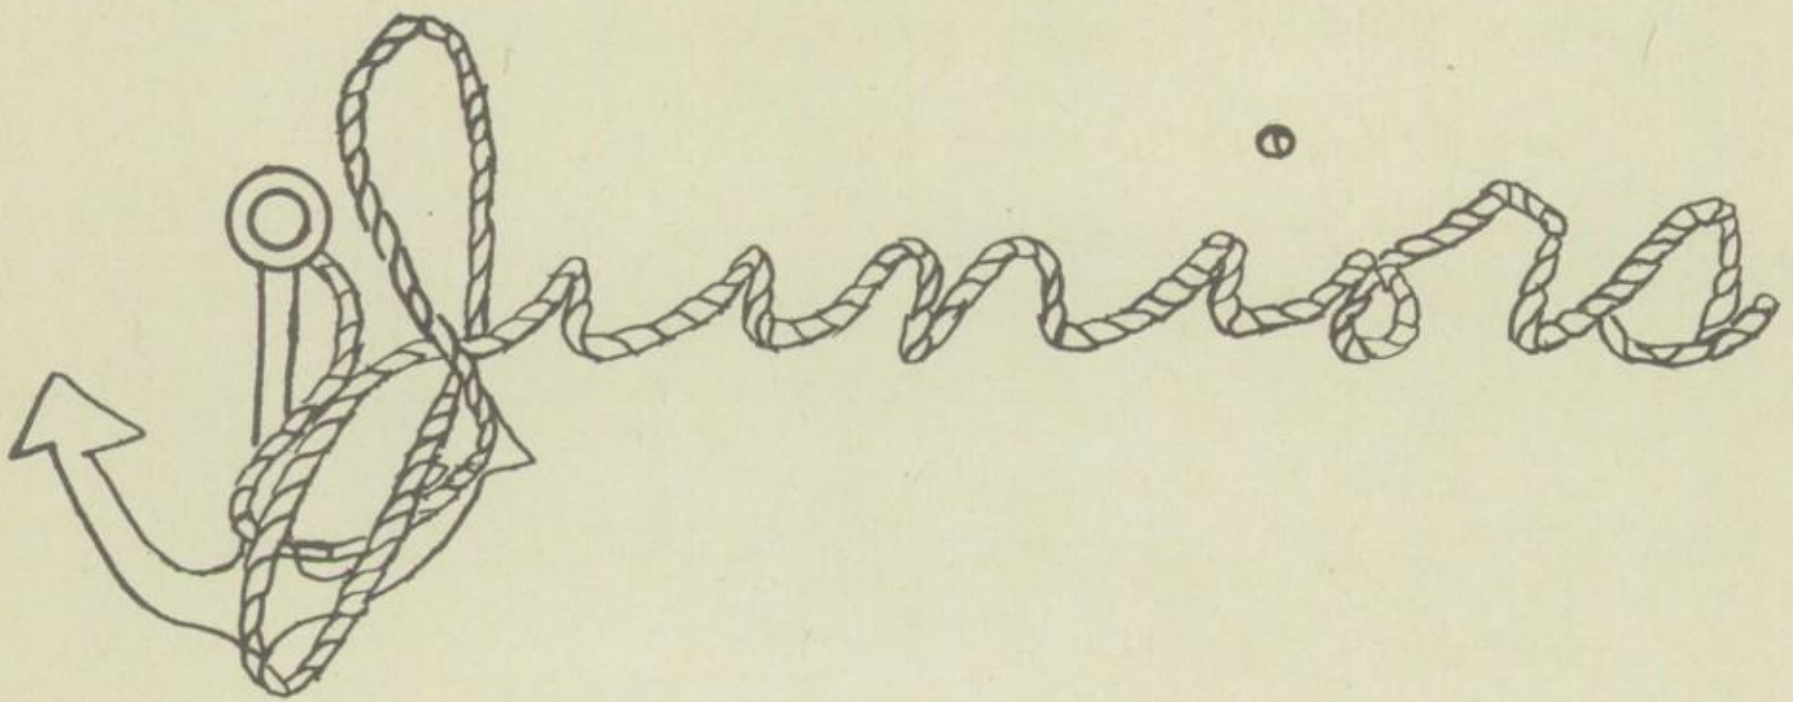

Carsten Wegman without his cute little tricks.

Douglas Wegman without his bright remarks.

Mary Jane Witker not trying to be agreeable.

Ruth Wormley not mad at one of the boys.

Second Row: Robert Reef, Gale Williamson, Orville McCoy, Harold Hiser, Paul Spicer, Ted Menter, Lowell Sander, Clyde Haar, Milton Aring, Arthur Smith.

Third Row: Mr. Huffman, Sponser, Mary Huffman, Lois Gockerman, Lillian Jean Marten, Marian Jean Sander, Joan Beeker, Paula Jean Muir, Anita Ernsthausen, Doris Vestal, Mary Stein.

Bottom Row: Peggy Heckman, Lois Bursiek, Marjorie Kaemming, Marcella Oehmke, Patti Bockbrader, Margaret Hurdelbrink, Donna Mae Hiser, Marilyn Duffy, Carolyn Duffy.

JUNIOR ACTIVITIES

In September, 1944, a group of thirty-six students assembled to begin the Junior year. Mr. Huffman was our sponsor. After a few weeks of school, we elected the following officers: Lillian Marten, president; Sam Cochran, v. President; Joan Beeker, secretary, and Lowell Sander, treasurer. Purple and white were chosen as our colors.

September 15 was a big event for us. We received our class rings, and are very proud of them.

Our treasury was enlarged by the magazine sale.

Then on November 3, 1944, came the presentation of our class play entitled, "One Mad Night". It was under the capable direction of Mrs. Lambert and Miss Curl.

On November 9, we had a skating at Perrysburg.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held April 27.

Our Junior year is coming to a close, and we hope that as Seniors, next year, we can occupy the places left by the class of 1945.

Lois Gockerman

JOKES

Mother: What sort of a chap is Henry, dear?

Margaret: Well last night the lights went out and he spent the rest of the night fixing the fuse.

Charles B.: What shape is a kiss?

Lois B.: I'll bite, what?

Charles B.: Give me one and we'll call it square.

Gale W.: I fell out of a fifty-foot tree.

Bob R.: Didn't you get hurt?

Gale W.: No, I was only up in it about five feet.

Father: Your boy friend talks too much. He rattles off like a flivver.

Joan B.: I know, pa, but his clutch is good.

Ruel S.: You look good enough to eat.

Doris P.: Well, I'm hungry.

Min A.: You don't mean to tell me your relative knows the exact year, month, and day he is going to die.

Bill S.: He ought to, the judge told him.

As a car lunged a lady fell backward into a man's lap.

She: For evermore!

He: Oh, no. Just for a little while.

Hey, Bill?

Yeah?

Are you all right?

Yeah.

Then I shot a bear.

Biology teacher: Why does a dog chew a bone?

Orville M.: Because he can't swallow it whole.

A handkerchief and a sock, by chance, met in a tub in the laundry.

"How did you get in here" asked the sock.

"Oh, I was blown in," replied the handkerchief.

"I was scent," said the sock.

ONE MAD NIGHT

presented by
JUNIOR CLASS

Nov. 3, 1944

Cast of Characters

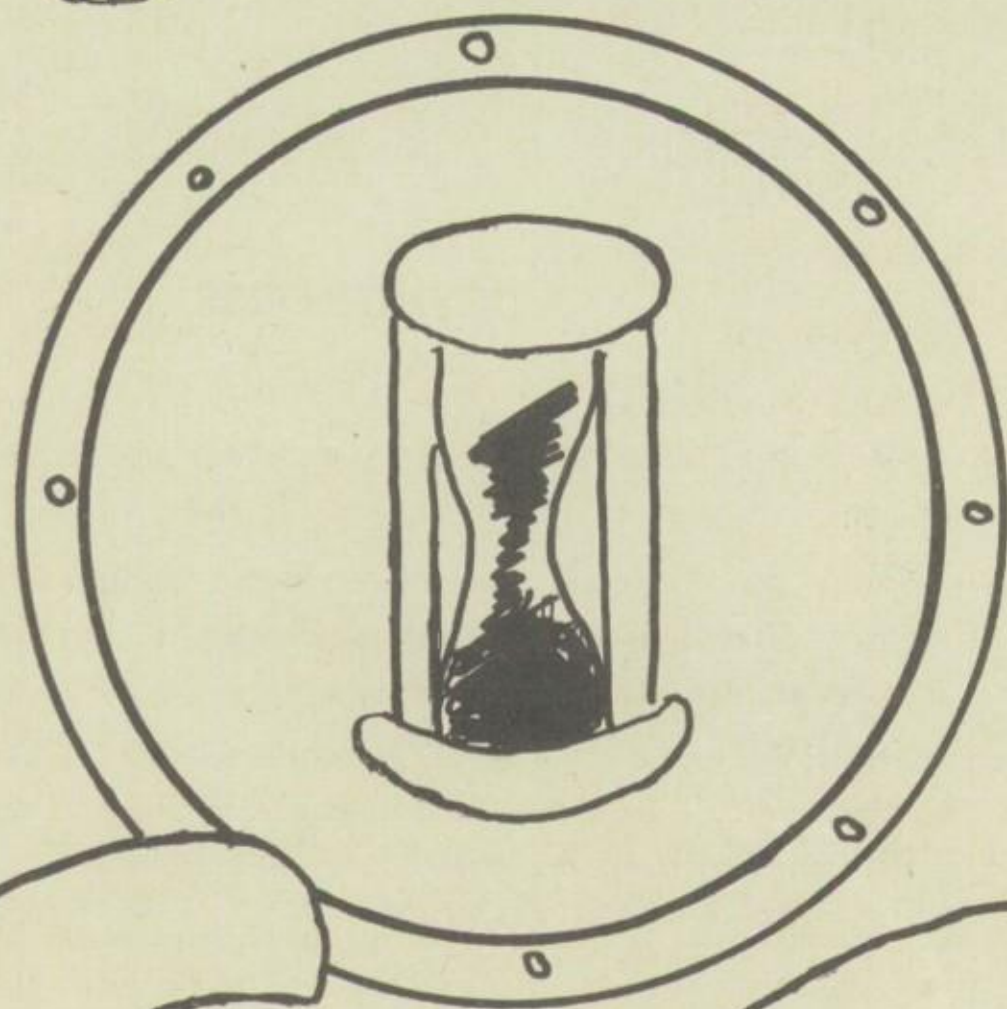

Don Cutter, a young playwright	Ted Abke
Lucille Marcy, a damsel in distress	Joan Beeker
Wing, a Chinese valet	Sam Cochran
Priscilla, one of the lunatics	Carolyn Duffey
Lady Macbeth, a victim of Shakespeare	Margaret Hurdelbrink
John Alden, who hunts Indians	Ted Menter
Mr. Hyde, a ferocious villain	Ruel Speck
Dr. Bunn, who is in charge	Lowell Sander
Mrs. Kluck, the housekeeper	Jean Marten
Gertrude Finch, Don's fiancée	Patti Bockbrader
Mrs. T. Ashington Finch, her mother	Anita Ernsthansen
Depression, their colored maid	Lois Gockerman
Artemus Burke, a lawyer	Gale Williamson
Danny Siletto, wanted for murder	Dwight Martin

Directed by Mrs. Lambert

Assisted by Miss Curl

The action of the entire play takes place in "one mad night." Don Cutter, a playwright, accompanied by Wing, goes to the Cutter mansion, a lonely house in the hills, to complete his latest play in peace and quiet. The house, having been deserted for years, is found to be tenanted by a group of lunatics under the care of Dr. Bunn. Among the inmates is Lucille with an amazing sob-story. Don is just about to ride to her rescue, when his fiancée and her mother put in an appearance with their maid. From this point everything happens; talking ghosts, screaming women, disappearing guests, and an escaped murderer fleeing for his life. Don succeeds in rescuing Lucille from an evil fate only after many thrilling escapades.

SOPHOMORES ACTIVITIES

As the sand of the hour glass slowly sifted downward, the class of '47 began its Sophomore year. We started the year with one new student, Raymond Dunham, and lost one, James Madden, leaving a total of 24. Mrs. Lambert is our class sponsor.

Out of our class, three pupils were chosen to be cheerleaders, Eloise Dierksheide, Henrietta Krift, and Herbert Titkemeier.

Class activities during the year included a class skating party at Bowling Green, the selection of class rings, and the choosing of blue and white as class colors.

FRESHMAN ACTIVITIES

We started our Freshman year with twenty-nine pupils and Mr. Heckman as our class sponsor.

We received four new pupils from New Rochester this year. They are: Norma Ernsthausen, Romaine Abke, Desta Dierkesheide, and Kenneth Sieving.

We chose as our class officers: Marion Cochran, president; Norma Ernsthausen, vice president; Ellen Wegman, secretary; Joann Gockerman, treasurer; Lois Wigman, annual reporter.

We had a skating party at Perrysburg on October 19, 1944. We also had a party at the school on March 8, 1945. We played games and refreshments were served. Everyone had a nice time.

GRADE NEWS

All the grades are members of the Junior Red Cross. Our first project was gathering milk weed pods to be used by the Navy for life-saving jackets. One hundred and eight pupils participated and gathered four hundred and thirteen bags. Each pupil received twenty cents per bag. Billy Welling, Carolyn Rahe, and Herbert Hebler brought in the most bags.

Once again the school furnished the PTA Christmas program. It was of a musical nature, each grade contributing its share. Christmas parties and exchange of gifts were held in all of the grades.

During the Christmas season, Junior Red Cross Christmas boxes were sent to England for refugee children. Six large containers were filled for our Eastern Mountain Children.

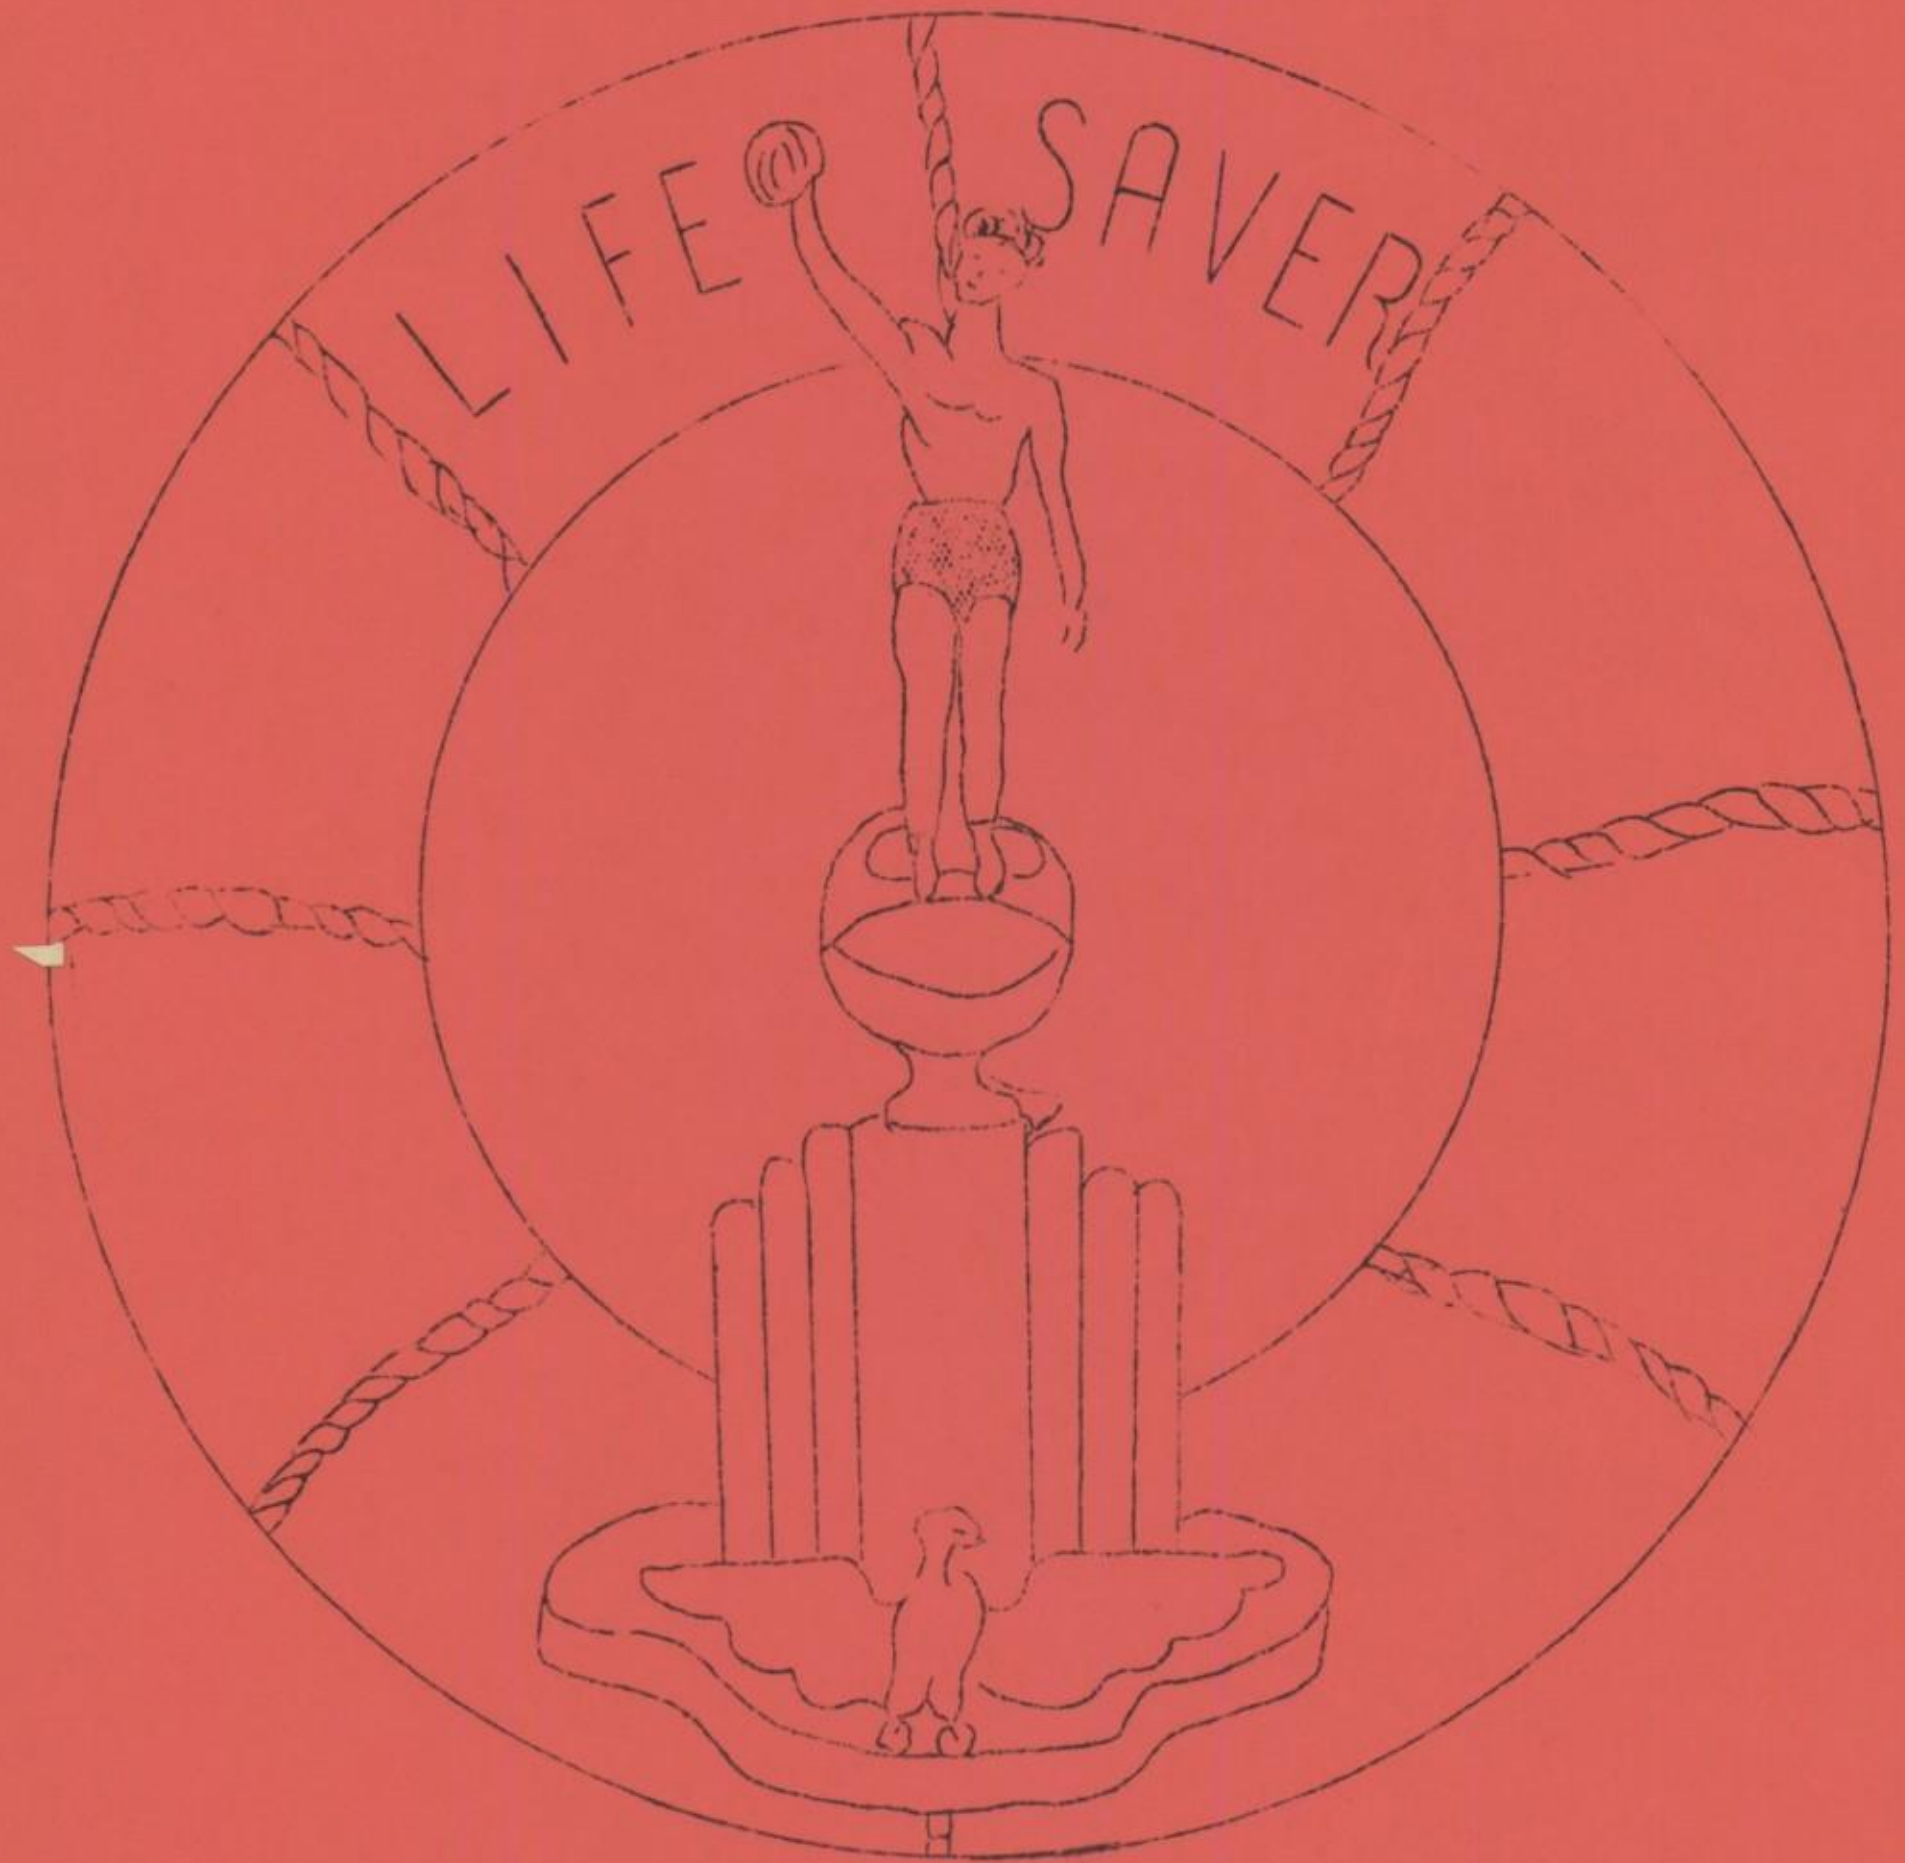

All the grades were busy at Easter time selling Easter Seals for the Crippled Children's Society.

War stamps and bonds were bought throughout the year. The following amounts were purchased:

First	$112.40
Second	24.70
Third	152.75
Fourth	56.75
Fifth	616.65
Sixth	423.45

Our Audubon Society consisted of the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. Mrs. Ward's talks proved to be very interesting and educational.

The 1944 baseball season opened with seven letter-men returning from last year's team. There were quite a few boys out for the team this year, so there was much debate over who should play what position and consequently many hard practices. The boys worked hard this year and rewarded themselves by going to the semi-finals in the county tournament. They were beaten out by Cygnet.

BASKETBALL 1944-45

The Redmen began their practice for the 1944-45 season under the guidance of a new coach, Walter W. Schubert. Mr. Schubert, after careful deliberation, decided to let the hopes and honors of the coming season rest on six seniors, three juniors, and one sophomore. Of this group, five were lettermen returning from last year's team; and for this reason, the boys and coach were looking forward to a successful season of basketball.

Although the Redmen were not always successful, they tried to show the highest degree of sportsmanship with others and cooperation among themselves.

The Redmen opened their season by playing the Wayne Bulldogs at Wayne. The Redmen jumped into a 10-2 lead the first quarter and increased it to 29-9 at the half. Although the Bulldogs outscored the Redmen the last half, the Redmen coasted to a 49-32 victory thereby hanging up their first scalp.

The second game was played with Rising-sun in the Redmen's wigwam. This game was close and exciting with the Redmen hanging up their second scalp by a 24-23 score. The score by quarters: 8-5; 14-9; 24-15; 24-23; with the home team in the lead throughout.

The third game was played with the Troy-Trojans at Pemberville. The Redmen were slow starting and found themselves on the short end of a 21-11 score at the half. The last half the Redmen still had trouble hitting the basket, while the Luckey five were "swishing" the nets regularly. The game ended with the Redmen going down to their first defeat by the score of 40-24.

The fourth game, the Redmen journeyed to Bradner to try to get their third scalp. This game turned out to be very rough, with many fouls being committed and few being called. The Redmen survived the affair and won by the score of 36-31. The half-time score being 15-14, the Redmen leading.

The fifth game was played with the Warriors from Woodville. The first half, it was a defensive game, both teams trying to work the ball through the opponents defense. The half ended with Woodville leading 12-6. The last half, the Redmen rallied only to have it fall short in the closing minutes. The game ended with every spectator on his feet, the final score being 30-32.

The sixth seasonal game was played at Portage. The Redmen took a 12-9 lead the first quarter which they increased to a 19-13 lead at the half-way mark. The Portage five came back the second half to outscore the Redmen from the field, but the visitors outscored the home team at the foul line. The Redmen tucking their fourth scalp under their belt by the score of 40-33.

The Redmen ended their pre-holiday basketball by playing Gibsonburg on the Redmen's floor. The Golden Bears jumped into a 26-11 half-time lead. The last half, they smothered the Redmen under a barrage of points and won 53-20.

Thus the Redmen took their vacation with a record of four wins as against three losses.

After being snowed in for two weeks, the Redmen traveled to Risingsun to try and gain their second victory over this club. The Redmen scored first, and never was behind as they led 8-4 at the quarter and 18-14 at the half. The last half, the Redmen went on to win 42-33 and recorded their fifth win.

The ninth game of the season, the Redmen played the Webster Scots on the latter's floor. The Redmen snatched an 8-6 lead in the first period. They increased this lead by one point to lead 15-12 at the half. The third quarter, the Redmen seemed to have "frozen up," as they scored only 2 points while the Scots scored 7 to lead 19-17. The fourth period brought different results however, as the Redmen tied the score, 25-25 as the game ended. This necessitated a three minute overtime period. In the overtime one of the Redmen broke under the bucket to score 2 points on a "hook" shot. Another Redman made a foul shot while the Scots were held scoreless. The Redmen went home with a hard earned sixth victory.

The tenth game was played with Bradner on the Redmen's floor. The first quarter was fairly close with the home team pushing into a 12-7 lead. The second quarter, they increased it to lead 23-10. The last half, they rolled to their seventh victory by a 35-27 score.

The eleventh game was played with Woodville on the latters floor. Earlier in the season the Woodville five had defeated the Redmen by a 30-32 score. It seemed as though the Redmen were going to have everything their own way as they surged to a 25-16 half-time lead. The last half was different, as the Redmen just seemed unable to keep the Woodville boys from scoring. With about 5 seconds remaining, one of the Warriors dropped in a field goal sending the Redmen home with their fourth defeat by a 44-43 score.

The next game was played with the Wayne Bulldogs on the Redmen's floor. The first half was close and hard fought with the Redmen holding a very slight 12-10 lead as the teams left the floor. The second half, the Redmen began to hit and went on to win by a score of 28-18.

The last seasonal game was played with the Webster Scots. This game was to decide the championship of the Eastern League and determine the seeded team in the county tournament. The Redmen's record was 7 victories as against no defeats and the Scots record was 6 wins and one defeat.

The Redmen jumped into the lead by a 7-5 score the first quarter. The lead changed the second quarter as the Webster five pushed into an 18-15 lead. After the intermission, the Redmen were able to make but one field goal while the Scots were making "buckets" from all angles. The Scots went on to win by the score of 41-23.

Due to the fact that Webster won the game, another game had to be played to decide which team should be seeded in the county tournament, as both teams had won 7 league games and lost one. By the flip of a coin, which Pemberville won, the game was to be played in the Redmen's gym the next evening.

The first quarter, the Redmen were unable to break the ice, as the Webster five led 8-0. The second quarter, the Redmen gained a little but Webster still led 10-5. The last half was close and hard fought with each team playing carefully so as not to lose possession of the ball. When the final whistle blew, the Scots were leading 25-18, thereby winning the League championship.

WOOD COUNTY TOURNAMENT

The next week, the Redmen spent sharpening their tomahawks and scalping knives for the county tournament. They were to enter it with an impressive record of 8 wins, and 6 losses. The Redmen had different ideas, however, and were determined to give a better accounting of themselves than the records indicated. The Redmen drew Olney in the first round of the tournament.

The Redmen were quick to snatch a 13-3 lead the first quarter. The Redmen maintained their pace to lead 20-7 at the half. The Redmen, with their reserves playing most of the last quarter, went on to win 31-22. Although the Redmen won, it can be said that the boys from Olney were handicapped by their lack of height.

The second game, the Redmen played Jackson. The Redmen jumped into the lead and never were threatened as they rolled to their second tournament victory. The score by quarters was: 17-7, 34-16, 43-24 and 50-31.

The Redmen then were to play Haskins, the seeded team from the Western League. The Redmen marched into a 6-4 lead the first quarter. The second quarter found the Big Reds from Haskins fighting hard and going into the lead 15-13 as the gun sounded for the half. The third period, the Redmen were fighting hard but still trailing 26-21. The fourth quarter, the Redmen started a drive that couldn't be stopped until the final gun when they were leading 35-33, thereby hanging up their third tournament scalp.

The next game, being the semi-finals, the Redmen were to meet the strong team from Luckey who had defeated the Redmen 40-24 during the regular season. The Redmen fought hard to gain an 8-6 lead the first quarter. The boys from Luckey were not to be downed so easily as they forged into a 22-18 half-time lead. The second half, the Redmen came charging back to roll up their fourth victory by a 33-29 score. This victory permitted the Redmen to meet the Webster Scots for the championship.

The game began with Webster scoring first and taking a 10-7 first quarter lead. The second quarter found the Redmen fighting back to gain a slim 16-15 half-time lead. The third quarter saw the lead changing hands several times and finally ending in a 21-21 deadlock. The last quarter the Redmen fought desperately to gain the lead which they did. Meanwhile they set up such a strong zone defense that the Scots were limited to one foul goal. The Redmen marched to the championship by the score of 26-22.

It was a happy and victorious band of Redmen that brought home the trophy. It was the seventh time in the 26-year history of the tournament that a Pemberville team has won the championship.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Pemberville drew Elmore in the first round of play in the District Tournament at Fremont.

This game turned out to be a very thrilling affair. The Redmen played like champions as they gained a 14-6 first quarter lead. The second quarter, the Redmen were unable to stop the tall boys from Elmore, but still led 23-22 at the halftime. The second half was very thrilling with one team in the lead and then the other. Both teams were battling for the ball as the game ended in a tie with a 37-37 score.

In the overtime period Elmore was first to score 2 points but Pemberville came back fighting to score two points. With three seconds left, one of the Redmen sent the ball on the long arch toward the bucket as the gun sounded. The ball fell through the "hoop" thereby giving the Redmen their first victory of the District Tournament.

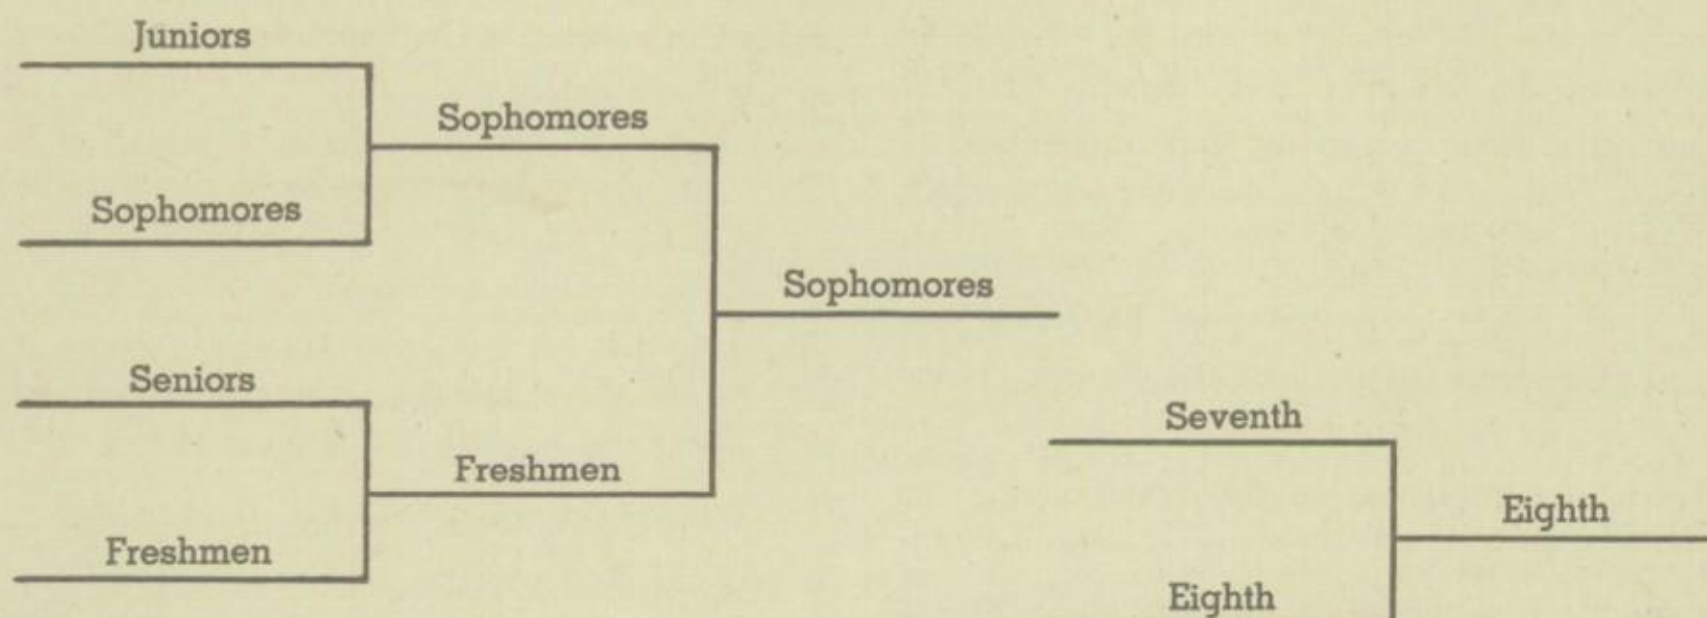

In the second round of the tournament, the Redmen played Monroeville, the Huron county champions. The Redmen were not the team, or so it looked, as the team from the East walked over the Redmen by the score of 48-23. It seemed futile for the Redmen as they tried again and again to put the ball through the basket, and very seldom succeeding. It seemed as though the smooth working team couldn't miss as they made 14 of 16 attempts at the foul line. The score by quarter was: 14-6, 25-7, 38-15, and 48-23.

THE CLASS OF '45

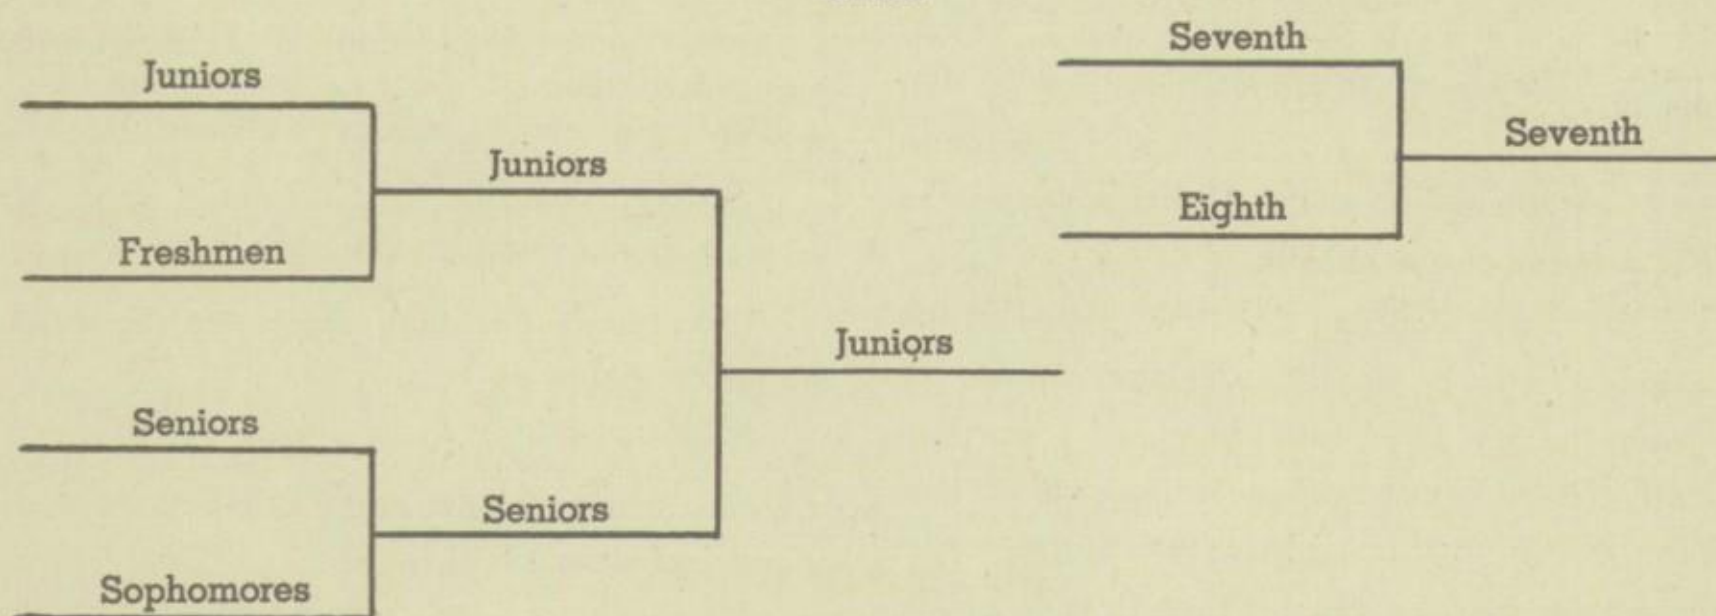

We were strangers when first we met
Within these beloved halls
The friends we made we'll never forget
As each goes where his life calls.
Our stumbling feet sought the same goal
Knowledge that years always bring
We are the master of our soul
And prepared for anything.
The tears the laughter we shared here
Have made us one family
Years may part us, but we'll hold dear
Our PHS memory.

INTER-CLASS TOURNAMENT

The first game of the Inter-class was played between the Junior and Freshman girls. It proved to be a walkaway for the Juniors, although they got off to a slow start. Score 27-9.

The second game of the Tournament was a hard fought game between the Junior and the Sophomore boys, with the Juniors on the wrong end of a 31-19 score.

The third game of the evening was the thrilling one point victory of the Senior girls over the Sophomore girls. The game looked in the bag for the Sophomores when less than a minute to go, Alethea Oehmke sunk the winning basket for the Seniors: Final score: 14-13.

A four man Senior boy's team lost a well played game to a strong finishing Freshman team by a score of 27-17. Halftime score was 9-8 in favor of the Seniors.

On Friday night, the first game of the evening was a closely contested game between the 7th and 8th grade girls. Joyce Ballard tied the score with a foul shot with less than a minute to go. In a two minute overtime no score was made. Then in a do or die battle, Joyce Biddle made the winning score for the 7th grade. The score was 14-12.

The 7th and 8th boys then took the floor. This proved to be a walkaway for the 8th grade, as Coach Gene Thomas used all of his 15 players. The score was 29-16.

The championship girls game, between the Junior and Senior girls, was a win for the Juniors with Jean Marten making 22 of the Juniors 28 points. Score 28-21.

In the final game of the tournament, the Sophomore boys ran away from the Freshman and came through with a 56-26 win. This game determined the winner of the boys' part of the tournament.

JOKES

Hap: You look so broken up this morning. Are you ill?

Bruce: Yes, I underwent a terrible surgical operation. Father cut my allowance off.

Miss Greenawalt: Correct the sentence— It was me that spilt the ink.

Eugene T.: It wasn't me that spilt the ink.

Barber: How do you want your hair cut?

Dale B.: Like dad's, with a hole in the top.

Shirley: You should change your style of dancing a little.

M. Beck: In what why?

Shirley: You might occasionally step on my left foot instead of the right.

Mrs. Lambert: I think sheep are the most stupid creatures on earth.

Mr. Lambert: Yes, my lamb.

Mr. Schubert: How many pupils have you in your classes?

Mr. Heckman: One out of every five.

Mr. Muir: Why were you kissing my daughter in the dark corner last night?

Bruce E.: Now that I've seen her in the light, I wonder, myself.

Miss Curl: Your pants look kinda sad.

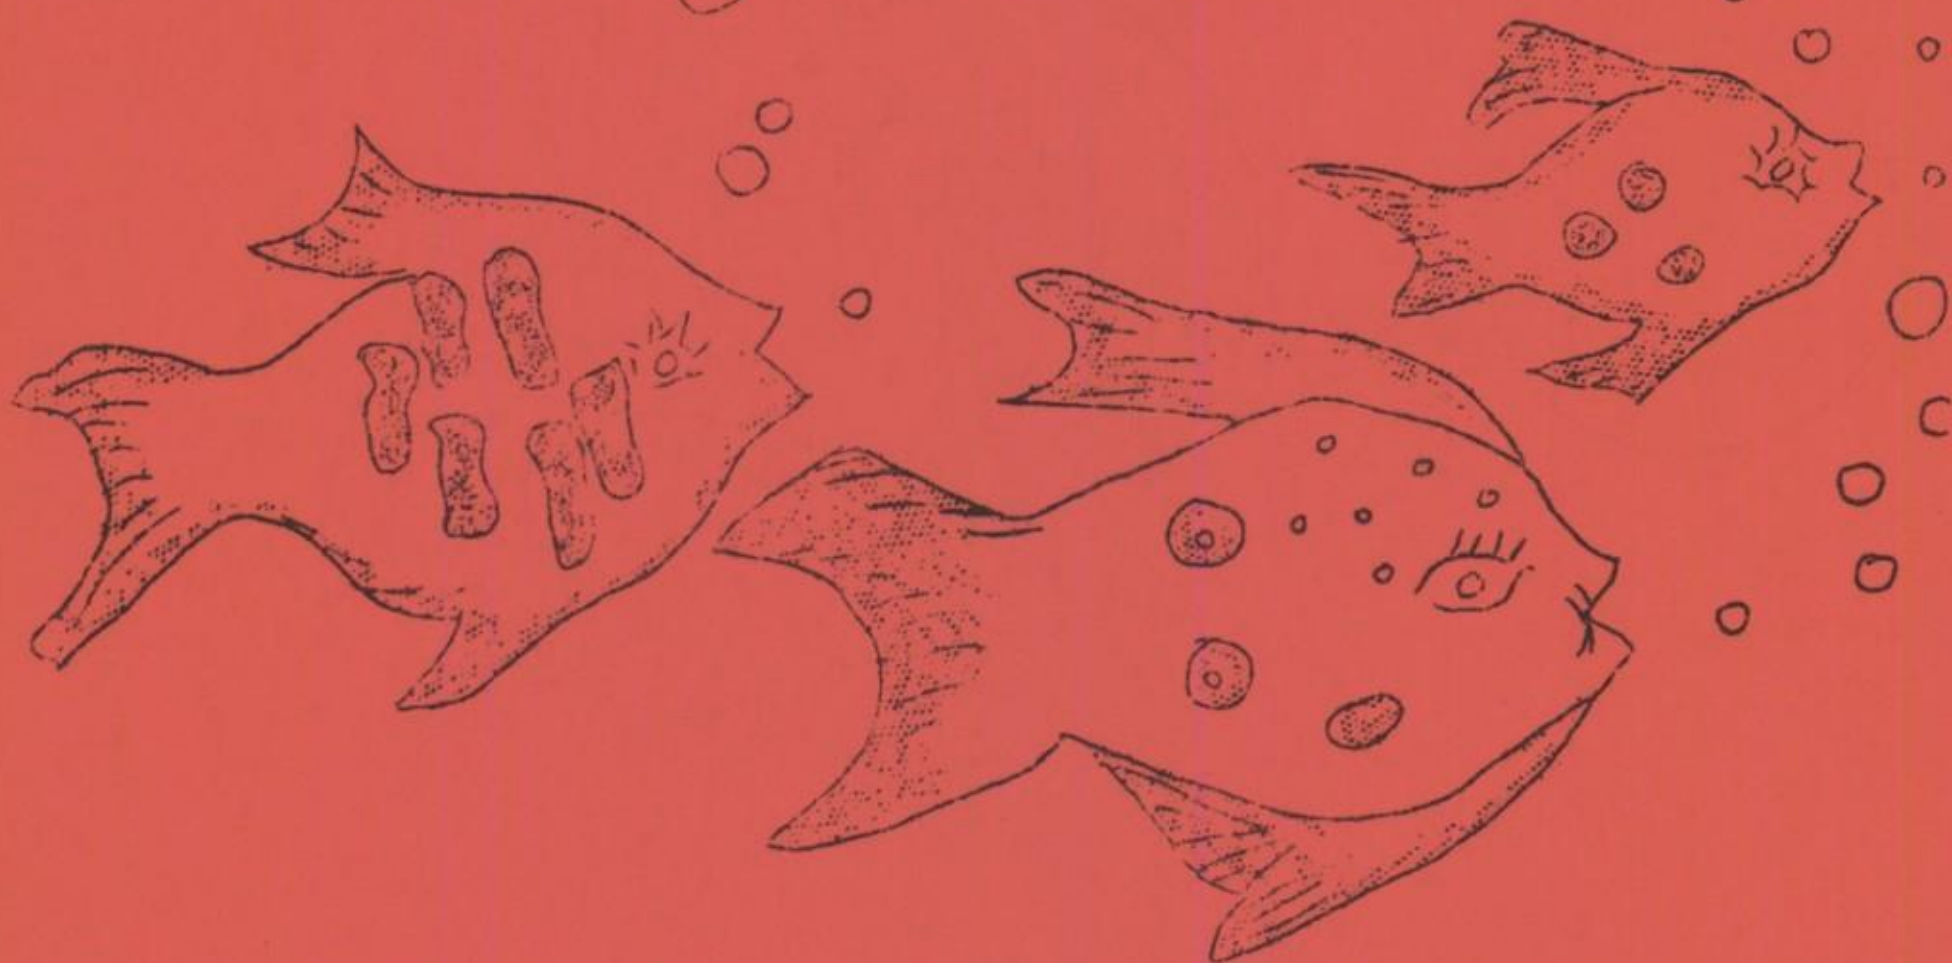

Bruce E.: What do you mean?

Miss Curl: Oh, kind of depressed.

Mr. Heckman (in chemistry class): Introduce three grams of sugar in a test tube.

Paul S.: Mr. test tube, meet Mr. sugar.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

Pause a moment while I sing a song
Of the class of '45
As grand a bunch as you'd care to meet
All glad to be alive.

To our President, Edwin, we're grateful
He's performed his duties well,
If he continues so thru life.
Ruthie will think he's swell.

Dale is our studious Vice-President
At basketball he can't be beat,
Sets many a girlish heart a-flutter
When he walks down the street.

Now Luther is our Treasurer
Never worries over things in school,
His quiet ways and happy smile
Will teach others to obey the Rule.

Shirley's a whizz at typing
Her fingers tickle the keys,
Her tongue is as flip as her fingers
When the boys she wants to tease.

Ann is everybody's pal
A girl we're proud to know,
Her quiet smile peps us up
When we are feeling low.

Now Ruth Hebler likes the boys
That is plain to see,
Maybe because the boys like her
Shes' as zippy as can be.

Mildred belongs to the land army
The gals who keep us fed,
If she should choose to go on a strike
We'd all have to diet instead.

The goat of the class is Bruce
He gets the girls and turns them loose,
Wastes his time, gas, and money,
But none of them want to call him "honey."

Sometimes Victor sort of resents
That fact that he's nicknamed "Pinky"
But it could be a great deal worse,
Suppose we called him "Stinkie."

Joann is a bashful miss
Sweet, demure, and shy,
But sometimes I have noticed
A "come hither" look in her eye.

Coleen, we're glad you are one of us
And I have a hunch,
You are a brave little soul indeed,
If you can stand this bunch.

Ruth "doubleyou" is a flirt
The only girl in the land,
And this is quite a distinction
If somebody should ask for her hand.

Jeanette's a talkative body
She has a certain allure,
But they used a phonograph needle
When they vaccinated her.

Eugene, if the curl-collected fad
Ever hit the girls—beware!
Your head will resemble Heaven
There will be no parting there.

Carsten the nicest boy you'll meet
Along life's broad hi-way,
Sincere in everything he does
And in all he has to say.

Kathryn will talk your leg off
She talks the live long day,
Then she stays awake at night
Making up things to say.

Mary Jane, why the pensive mood
Could it be you are afraid,
That when the hims are all dealt out
You will be an old maid?

Our Dick is a jolly kid
His parents' pride and joy,
A star on the basketball team
And the classes "smallest" boy.

Douglas has his profession chosen
He's planning to be a pastor,
If he see's a girl he'd like to wed
Will he have the nerve to ask her?

Lavonne is a thoughtful miss
She searches for knowledge deep,
She will follow her lucky star
And a grand harvest reap.

Lois has a twinkle in her eye
As she looks over the crowd,
Could be that she smiles, because
She's to polite to laugh out loud?

Alethea has her future all planned
Of a husband rich and homely,
She'd better change her ideas
Or she will live very lonely.

The aspirin companies have become rich
Give credit where credit's due,
The cause of all these headaches, Melvin,
Is nobody else but you!

An Athletic Association was again formed the first week of November. During this meeting a president, vice president, and treasurer, as well as a representative from each upper six grades, was elected.

Membership consisted of all teachers and pupils of Junior and Senior High School who paid 25c for membership. In return, a small, red, printed card was issued for proof of his membership. Almost the entire Junior and Senior High School joined the association.

During the year money was raised by selling pennants and giving shows during the noon period.

The principle purpose of this association was to bring about closer co-operation between students and faculty of Pemberville High School.

GLEE CLUBS

—Girls—

Top Row: Jane Louise Westerhouse, Jenny Ellis, Bernice Bruning, Doris Peters, Ruth Wormley, Ruth Hebler, Coleen Pollard, Donna Mae Hiser, Jeanette Bihn, Mary Stein, Hilda Wentland, Mildred Bumpus.

Third Row: Marian Jean Sander, Lillian Jean Martin, Lois Gockerman, Eloise Dierksheide, Peggy Heckman, Carol Jean Samson, Beulah Baker, Desta Dierkesheide, Marjorie Kaemming, Anita Ernsthausen, Miss Greenawalt.

Bottom Row: Lois Bursiek, Paula Jean Muir, Joan Beeker, Patti Bockbrader, Margaret Hurdelbrink, Marcella Oehmke, Lois Ann Wiegman, Margaret Henline, Katherine Ernsthausen.

Under the capable hands of Miss Virginia Greenawalt, the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs made another record to be placed in the Pemberette of '45.

The Girls' Glee Club, quite cut down compared to past years, numbered only 42.

Even though the Boys' Glee Club consisted of only 21 sets of vocal chords, they made the most noise of the two.

During the year we learned the following numbers:

Boys	Girls
Hear Dem Bells	The Lord's Prayer
I Dream of Jeanie	Sing Again
Marching Along	O! Irish Hills
Ole Uncle Moon	Night Song
Wake! Miss Lindy	Faith, Hope, and Love
Bendemeers Stream	When Johnny Comes Marching Home
Lord of the Living Harvest	Prayer of Consecration
	My Buddie

and others too numerous to mention. We acquired many new and different pieces. We also participated in the Christmas program given by the P.T.A., and sang at several assemblies.

—Boys—

Top Row: Allan Ballard, Ted Abke, Robert Dierksheide, Lowell Witker, Earl Abke.

Second Row: Robert Beeker, Wilbur Gottschalk, Fred Leonard, Ronald Bruning, Melvin Karns, Dick Reitzel, Herbert Titkemeier, Miss Greenawalt.

MIXED CHORUS

Top Row: Donald Oberhause, Sam Cochran, Ted Abke, Ted Menter, Charles Friesner, Lowell Witker.

Third Row: Scott Muir, Harlan Wegman, Robert Beeker, Robert Kohring, Gene Kohring, Kenneth Sieving, Earl Wegman.

Second Row: Donald Rahe, Fred Leonard, Norma Ernsthausen, Betty Konzen, pianist, Marian Jean Sander, Joan Gockerman, Mary Lee Wegman, George Alexander, Donald Siefke, Miss Grennawalt.

Bottom Row: Lois Gockerman, Paula Jean Muir, Lois Bursiek, Mary Hebler, Jenny Ellis, Lois Wigman, Jeanette Bihn, Henrietta Krift, Eloise Dierksheide.

After about three months of school, Miss Greenawalt suggested we organize a Mixed Chorus. So on a bright Monday afternoon, 28 shining faces appeared in the music room.

With Betty Konzen as our pianist we learned:

Incline Thine Ear	Golden Slumbers
The White Dove	Hush Song
A Legend	They Sang That Night In Bethlehem
Hark! Now The Bells	Lullaby of Jesu

and others.

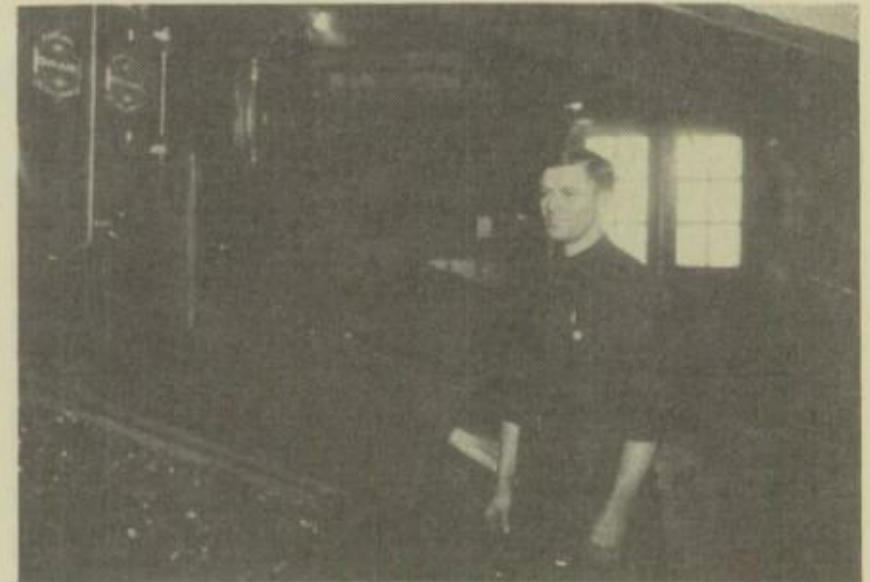

We also sang at the P.T.A. Christmas program and several assemblies.
